2014 SEASON SUMMARY

2014 Sandburg Cross Country Team—

Most certainly, this year's team will be remembered for making history. It will be remembered for being the best team in Sandburg history, for its unparalleled excellence, for its near-flawless record, for running fast and winning. To be sure, this team is a bunch of champions. We love to compete, we love to work hard, we love to be challenged, we love to win. Setting goals and going after trophies is a worthy cause. The ability to set goals, work toward them, and find strength and composure when it is most needed are incredibly valuable tools in life. Simply being a participant probably doesn't lead to a very meaningful existence. And that is what we did: we went from being 2nd in the SWSC as a F/S team to leading the state and nation. We finally mounted the stage in Detweiller and lifted a 2nd place trophy, and took home the 1st place trophy at Nike Midwest, and who knows how NXN Nationals will go.

Of course, you all know what I'm going to talk about next. Trophies gather dust, but decency and caring for others grows richer with time. You've heard it a million times from me. And it is no more apparent that this concept is the soul of this team than the year we won a trophy. The last thing we did as a team this year was drive to the home of a teammate's family and offer all we could—our love and support. It's my proudest moment. It showed exactly why we were so good—we were tough and together. We had a purpose much greater than ourselves to run for. This isn't what a team does, it's what a family does. Teams can be beaten; families are unbreakable. Irrompible.

And it's hard to imagine where our family would be without the soul of our team: our seniors. Midway through the season as I was deciding how we should support the girls' swim team when they had endured tragedy, I thought, "the strength of this team lies in its passion for helping others. We are passionate in our pursuit to be there for each other." And that was when I thought of the idea of showing up to a Tuesday dual swim meet and make it one of the most raucous sporting events of the year. I knew the risk of showing up with a group of people to something like this. Not everyone knows how to support others; not everyone appreciates support. But I thought of our seniors and knew that we wouldn't just be there—we wouldn't just be "observers," but we'd be the soul of the pool. And indeed we were. That day gave me the next idea—Sandburg Crazies. And it grew from there. At the soul of it was the passion of our seniors. This is beauty of it—the impetus of this kind of support was entirely inspired by the heart of the seniors. They inspired news ideas, ways to be greater than we've ever been. And that will last well beyond their years here. Seniors: thank you for who you are, your undying passion and leadership, your endless dedication. I've never met a group of people who carry each other with such soul as you.

As the season went on we had mantras to live by: MLT, Irrompible, NO GAPS, (not to mention a variation of MLT to describe a new dynamic exercise), and the list goes on. All of them centered on the value of being grateful for our opportunities and each other. It focused on being tough and together. No gaps meant leaving no one behind. That of course didn't just mean on the cross country course. We have a lot of work to do just to attempt to maintain what this team became. It's hard to imagine outdoing the 2014 team. But that is the task ahead—it's the task that's been in place for every team I've ever coached: let's honor the past by making the future even better. No gaps. We were two minutes away from bringing home a state championship. It's time to finish what we all worked so hard to start!

Thank you for the best season of my coaching career. I couldn't be prouder. I couldn't be more thankful.

Coach O'Malley

NEWS AND NOTES

Time Trial

Saturday, August, 23, 2014

90, calm, sunny, HUMID, wet

COACH'S COMMENTS: It certainly was a tough day to race on Saturday. I loved how we responded and never entertained an excuse. There was plenty of aggression and tough racing out there. The conditions gave us a slow day, so times are not where they should be right now, but that isn't the reason we race like that. We do that race to bring our team together after a summer of training and to introduce our new guys to what we are all about. It also gives us a rust buster of an effort. As I said on Saturday, that will be as slow as you'll be all year long. Our focus right now needs to be on training and doing things so that we are at our best when it counts most. You should also be using early races to practice your racing mentality. You are training to create your best version of you by the end of the season. When you race, you are training your psychology and learning how to be your best. Examine your thought process from Saturday. Did you break the race up? What was your mental approach? Were you excited to race? What was your thinking process when you started to hurt? Did you respond to negative thinking?

Even with the conditions as they were, we had a number of guys who improved. Alex Szymanski sticks out right away with a huge three and a half minute drop. He's starting to look really tough. Miles Draskovic has really stepped up this summer as well. His commitment is there and he is seeing some huge improvements. Alejandro Claire raced tough and is on another level this year. Our freshmen looked tough. Dylan Jacobs turned in one of the best freshman performances of all time. Look how close he was to Skucas' time from last year with far worse conditions. Everyone was talking about Jacobs' awesome run. Nick Gonsch also tore it up, running sub 20:00, which is rare for a freshman. Another guy people were talking about was Michael Scott and how he stepped up his game. We have a lot of great freshmen running right now and I'm excited to see them all progress throughout the season. Sean Torpy shredded a 15:37, which is a smokin time. He wouldn't have been able to do it if it weren't for Gregory Simon Burzinski, who got the race going with some strong frontrunning after the 800 mark. By the way, it's important to note that Greg started with a 20:11 as a freshman. It's a great reminder of where you can go with hard work. Tom Brennan battled back after losing some ground before the 2 mile mark and managed to out tough the third mile. It was also exciting to see Martin Skucas and Brandon Lukas battling it out all the way to the chute. Overall, I had a good feeling leaving Turtlehead Lake, mostly about our attitude and enthusiasm. I think we are a tough team who makes no excuses, loves to compete and loves to support each other. I see the makings of champions.

TIDBITS: »Support Squad begins this week »Pre-SWSC Tuesday at Channahon Park in Joliet

THANK YOU TO THE PARENTS AND RUNNERS FOR THE WONDERFUL PICNIC ON SATURDAY!!!

WHAT'S NEXT: Training and more training. We'll have practice on Saturday at 9:00.

Channahon Park* course changed due to water

Tuesday, August, 26, 2014

80, partly sunny, calm, WET— lots of standing water

COACH'S COMMENTS: It was a great feeling to get the uniforms out and to head out to Channahon Park again. It's been almost a year since we were at SWSC in October 2013 and took home the double title as we headed into the championship part of the season. We've been through a lot since that day and we are stronger and tougher than ever before. We used this as an opportunity to make the race as mentally and physically demanding as possible. We ran a mid range long run Monday and ran in trainers in some seriously soggy conditions. Add on some warm temperatures and we were being tested. I like it. That's how we get better. It won't be the last time we encounter tough situations and conditions. A couple of things stuck out about the race. Dylan Jacobs is an absolute competitor. He doesn't make a big deal about it, he just shows up and races like a beast. Likewise, Alex Szymanski is coming around and looking fit. I loved how Alejandro responded after the missed turn. The missed turn is not good, but his response was awesome. He problem solved and went about figuring out how to get the job done. He was tough and aggressive and fought his way back to the front. I was also a big fan of Zambrano. That dude is a competitor. I like his style. I think he has what it takes to be a great runner. In the middle of the race, he was battling and loving the battle. When we go to compete, we go there to compete. We aren't there as mere participants. That means we are aggressive, we problem solve until the task is completed, we run with toughness and passion. I saw that in the F/S group. I was super excited about the energy of the freshmen on Monday and it showed in the race on Tuesday. Our pack up front in the varsity race accomplished the task. We need to take care of business when we race against these guys next time—some of them next Saturday. These are guys we need to be mowing down. Gregory Burzinski looked fluid and strong—both are at their highest level I've ever seen them. He's been doing a better job with the extra things of strength and core and laying down the miles and it shows in his efficiency. It is clear as day to me, especially in inefficient course conditions. Maximus Lehnhardt had an exciting performance. He went out there and stuck his nose in it and didn't back down when he was pressed. This is EXACTLY the mentality I am looking for! Don't you EVER place others in front of yourself! Let's see some more risk taking from guys! Alec Regan managed to break 25:00, which was his goal last week. Let's keep it rolling!

RUNNERS OF THE WEEK: Kyle Lahucik, Dylan Jacobs, Sean Torpy, Michael Scott

Lyons Invitational

Saturday, Sept. 6, 2014

Starting high 60s, ending 74, relative calm, partly sunny

Quotes of the Week:

COACH'S COMMENTS:

This was a great opening meet. I saw a lot of great things happen. It was obvious that we were prepared mentally and physically to take on the challenge of the day. I saw our guys warming up together, sharing confidence with one another, never entertaining excuses or ways to back off. We were building victory from the minute we woke up. I said one thing we were definitely looking for was the response to a challenging moment. Every race has those moments when you can quit, back off, or give yourself the slightest hesitation. We saw a bunch of competitors responding to the challenge over and over again.

The open race got things rolling. Brady Walter clearly was confident and hungry. He went right to the front and took over the race before the 800 mark and never looked back. One of the most exciting races came from Mike Brower. That guy has more passion than anyone I know. It showed in the race. His finish was absolutely phenomenal—all heart. B-W and Lifonti had good comeback races after being down and are moving in the right direction. One of the races of the day was without question Kyle Lahucik. I loved the way he competed and put it all on the line in the middle of the race and managed to be tough enough to finish. He clearly went to the well. Mid race, he was informed that we needed him to make a move around a group of LT guys in order for us to win. With our four guys up front, LT had managed to pack in a bunch of guys behind and we needed our fifth to move up. Kyle went from 15th place to 9th and secured us the victory. It was a great way to start! That is the kind of competing that I want to see most. Your team needs you, you are hurting, and you find the strength to make it happen. This is the response I was talking about on Friday. Stogin was sidelined for a stretch and somehow found a way to get through it and was another one with a huge comeback race. John Markey did the same thing—out for a while and came storming back. What toughness!

The much anticipated showdown in the varsity race got under way with a bunched up pack and no one taking control. Some of the field was anticipating the presence of Zach Dale too much and didn't know how to adjust. You cannot rely on someone else to determine your racing. If you trust someone else more than yourself, then we are in trouble. That is one thing I want to see more of: trust yourself! You've put in thousands of miles. You know yourself. Risk big and trust your gut. Sean Torpy decided to take control shortly after the 800 and blew things open. He took a risk—the only way you are ever going to win a competitive race. At this point, I was concerned about Gregory because he was stuck back in the field. Fortunately he adapted and problem solved and moved his way up and proceeded to chase S Torps the next two miles. This was key because it kept the pressure on Sean to keep the pace honest. This helped secure his top finish and put Greg in position to win. His big kick nearly caught Sean. I can't help but think we could have been more effective with a more cohesive move. Had Greg been up near Sean and they put the move in together, they could have worked together over the next two miles and probably would have went 1-2. Brennan could have benefited from this as well. He got up front early, but let a gap open that he didn't close down until very late in the race. He could have gone with Sean as well. Let's remember this as we race plan for our next races. We could help our individual efforts out through a unified effort. Here is what I'm excited about: every guy in the varsity race thought he could win the race. I LOVE that. That is what makes a champion. BLukas took the lead after the 800, Brennan took it early, C Torps followed S Torps and had plans on running him down. Maximus was gutsy up front the whole way, at one point moving into the top four. Gleisner hung in there and battled back with a huge comeback race. Sean's win is big time and what comes as no surprise from Sean, it shows his willingness to take his game up to the front pack. We have a bunch of champions in that race. We'll iron our racing out as we move on and have a lot to learn from that race, but the fact that those seven guys acted like champions is what is most important. Now we have to lock down a championship by eliminating the gap...no gaps!

Without question, the most impressive race of the day had to be Dylan Jacobs. To be honest, that was one of the best races I have seen in a long time. It was beyond entertaining to see those two guys engage in a war, each exchanging blow after blow. One guy would make a move and the other would answer. Dylan has no quit in him. His race was by far the most veteran race I saw...ironic coming from a guy in his first invitational ever. He went through the first 600 meters with efficiency, finding the holes and making smooth passes without getting out too hard. After 600 he moved into the lead and began the mile and a half boxing match. It was awesome! So many guys out on the course commented on Dylan's toughness. Meanwhile we had a great group of freshmen trailing closely behind. Nick Gonsch and Brendan Duffy likewise ran veteran, tough races. They are really exciting to watch. They are improving every week and turning into studs. I can't tell you how excited I was to watch Michael Scott race as well. That guy missed the summer running but is showing some huge potential in just a few weeks. He turned on the after burners in the final stretch and simply fought hard—he was a competitor out there. Patrick Morris is seeing the benefits of his summer running and made a huge improvement in this race. I'm really pumped about these freshmen! They are a tough, poised, enthusiastic group with a ton of potential!

Finally, the sophomores were poised to finish the day off the right way. Martin Skucas went with the pack through 800 and then took over and drilled the field for the next 2.5 miles. He looked really fit, strong and efficient as he ran. He is certainly on another level this year. Alex Szymanski was aggressive early and got caught. Here was the moment of response. He battled right back and fought the whole way. Listen: Szymanski was 33rd last year in the freshman race. Freshmen: which one of you is going to be the guy who moves up from mid pack to the front of the pack as a sophomore? It'll take a year of hard work, but you can be as good as you want to be. We then had a strong pack of sophomores who've made huge improvements from last year. Danny P moved throughout the whole race. With him was Alejandro Claire, two places ahead in 24th when last year he was 46th. Nolan rolled in 29th and last year he was 44th. This is what our team is all about—improving every year through dedication and hard work.

I was thrilled with the way we raced at Lyons. I expected you guys to be strong enough to race well, but I also know that training has put an accumulated fatigue in your legs. We'll continue to train hard and I expect some huge improvements over the next month. Just remember the lessons from track season—our training often took some of the race out of us throughout the season, but people ripped off PR after PR when it counted.

We had a lot of energy this week in anticipation of our first invitational. The energy was a result of all the hard work you put into preparing for the meet—you knew you were ready to do something to be excited about. Let's make sure that we bring this kind of energy and confidence to the next week of our season...and every week after that!

NEWS AND NOTES

RUNNERS OF THE WEEK: Paul Sieczkowski, Robbie Sieczkowski, Ben Cachares, Nick Gonsch

Reavis Invitational
Saturday, Sept. 13, 2014

50's/low60's, sunny, beautiful, wet* course slightly modified due to flooding

COACH'S COMMENTS:

We've gotten off to a great start to the season. At Reavis, I was thrilled with the response to the challenge I issued on Friday evening: don't limit yourself. Take risks. Have a deep belief. Our F/S guys got things going with the right mentality. We needed some big efforts to get the job done, and we had to rely on everyone putting everything they have into the race. I am hoping everyone on the team takes a look at this as an example. The state meet will be close. It's easy to say right now that you'll put in a huge effort for the entire 15 minutes, getting every guy you can. I've seen the state meet championships decided by 1 point on three occasions. I've seen ties for 2nd and 3rd multiple times. We need to believe every guy matters. Our F/S showed off some serious guts. We asked guys to step up. Nick Gonsch stepped up huge. He has turned into a really good runner and he keeps getting better. He ran his first sophomore invitational race with a lot of guts. He kept moving up throughout the race and rallied into the top 10 to lead our group. Alejandro Claire showed some risk taking out there. I love it. He wasn't about to settle and he did exactly what I hoped everyone would do: he went for it, put it all on the line, and didn't for a second place himself behind anyone. He went for the top five right from the start and hung in there until the final mile when he faded. But I hope he keeps racing with that kind of mentality. The finish of the race will come. Brennan Duffy had one of the races of the day as well. He chopped eight heads in the second half of the race to run down a top 15 finish. Ben Cachares was a perfect person to lock down our win. We tied with Libertyville at 76 points, so the tie breaker goes to the 6th runner. Cachares, who has been one of our most dedicated runners for the past year, came up huge and beat the Libertyville runner to get us the title. Every guy matters. Every effort matters. Every second counts. If we are doing things the right way—putting every ounce of focus and effort into every moment—then the wins will come.

Our varsity guys continued racing with guts. Dylan Jacobs is inspiring everyone with the way he races. He was thrown into his first varsity race and didn't hesitate to go for the win from the start. He was caught in the middle of the race, but didn't can it—he kept fighting and didn't let those Hinsdale South guys go. He blitzed to a 16:08 on a course that is slower than it was a year ago with the extra distance. Therefore, he probably had a great chance to better the sophomore course record that Laskero set a year ago—15:52. I'm pumped to see what he can do in Peoria next week. I would have liked to have seen more of that kind of racing. Our seniors need to see a freshman up there and immediately go after it. After four years of training, we shouldn't be letting a freshman take control of the race and leave him hanging out there. B-W made a big move after the mile to try to reel DJ in but DJ was gone. If we race like that in the varsity race in Peoria we'll be out of the race before the mile. Dan Laskero had his rust buster and is looking like he'll be coming around soon.

As I said on Saturday, Paul Sieczkowski demonstrated every thing this team stands for on Saturday. First of all, he had a set back with his health. He did everything to make sure he was ready to race and maintained fitness. He got back as soon as possible through his rehab and attention to detail. Next, he dedicated his race to his grandparents. He used his gifts to inspire others. He was running for a greater purpose than simply for himself. Then he made a decision that he was going to win the race. He decided before the race even started. That kind of conviction and passion is what makes winners win. He didn't look for an excuse. He didn't place himself behind others. He didn't let himself off the hook with low expectations. Finally, when it came time to actually race, he kept himself accountable. He was committed to the promise he made to himself. When it got tough, he was tougher. John Wags had a great race. I love his dedication and determination. He gets everything out of himself. Big Lou Cavalier looked awesome—he is looking stronger every week. And look at Robbie Sieczkowski. His time would have been right with our best runner in the Sophomore race. He had a tough day last week at Lyons, but he didn't let that become who he is. This is critical. There is a big difference between failing and being a failure. You are going to get used to whatever you allow yourself to get used to. He didn't like his result last week and he made it happen this week. By the way—I love how our freshmen are developing! I love that group! Keep improving! Keep working harder! You have what it takes to be great!

This week we won all three races, but just like last week, just like next week, just like today and every day, we don't evaluate our running by comparing ourselves to others. It's about doing things the way we know they should be done. We are focused on what we know it takes to reach our best when our best will be most needed—SWSC, Regionals, Sectionals and State.

I am looking for guys who love competition and who sees competition as their way of reaching their best. It will be fun to watch for that on Saturday. I'd like to see guys step up even more at Peoria and showcase the confidence of Dylan Jacobs, the conviction of Alejandro Claire, the passion for a greater purpose of Paul Sieczkowski. That doesn't mean running recklessly, but it does mean running with a lot of guts and hunger. Right now if we plan on turning our goals into a reality you will need to show the hunger, the poise, and emotional discipline, and the ability to get the job done. Psychotic Dedication. Small Wins. Blue Collar Mentality. Running for a Greater Purpose. No Excuses. Focus on Our Standards.

Overall, great second week of training, great opportunities ahead...let's great ready for some big races!

TIDBITS:

- ✓ Thanks to the parents, family and friends who have been coming out to the meets and showing support.
- ✓ "Top 10" lineups for Soph and Varsity races will be announced soon.
- ✓ Saturday is the Peoria Notre Dame Inv. Travel time is approx. 2-2.5 hours. We will also be spending a little time on state meet strategy after the race, so we will not be getting back until early evening (more precise timeline is forthcoming). We can only take 50 of our 70 guys due to bus restrictions.

WHAT'S NEXT: Goals for Peoria: Some of the best runners in the state are there. Let's go get 'em.. PR's for everyone.
Sub 16:30 Club for F/S and Sub 15:30 Club for juniors/seniors.

SANDBURG CROSS COUNTRY

NEWS AND NOTES

RUNNERS OF THE WEEK: Chris Torpy, Max Lehnhardt, Martin Skucas

Peoria Notre Dame Invitational

Saturday, Sept. 20, 2014

High 70s/low 80s, mostly sunny, humid

QUOTE OF THE WEEK: "Pulling into Detweiller Park for today's race, I knew that I was running for some greater purpose. I knew that running for a greater purpose is a major part of Sandburg Cross Country's family. I knew that I only had one PND race left. But, I didn't fully realize/understand how much racing for a greater purpose means to other people. When you dedicate a race to someone, they feel more confident in themselves. They are rejoiced because they know that our races are for them. We race, we push ourselves to find unexplored inner strength, for people that can't run, people that can no longer race in the Sandburg jersey, and for the people that dedicate their lives to us. I realized that they appreciate everything more because they know that someone is out there dedicating their vulnerable competition to them."—Kyle Lahucik

COACH'S COMMENTS:

While we left Detweiller with a varsity title and some great performances, we should also feel that we have a lot of work to do. We have a long way to go to reach our goals. The coming weeks will require a ton of work. Fortunately, we've always been better at the end of the season than we've been at PND.

PND is on our schedule so that we can be given a test. The meet is there to test you. We seek the best competition, we have some high standards, and we keep the pressure on all season. The question is, how did you respond to the test? Did you let pressure take you out of your race plan or overwhelm your emotional state? Did you use the pressure to fuel your hunger? Were you able to execute the race plan? This is why we do this sport. While we practice, you are training yourself to be comfortable with being uncomfortable. This is a valuable thing, not only for running but for life. When you get into a competitive environment in which your composure is challenged, you need to determine your psychological environment. You have to be excited about the opportunity. If you are worried about what you might lose, or what would happen if you don't perform, then you aren't focused on how you can make it right. How we responded on Saturday would be a great indicator of where we are at psychologically.

The varsity opened up the day by showing that they have the right mentality. I love the way they took it to the field from the first minute. They ripped through the opening 800 in position up front. We had eight guys in the top 20, just to get things started. I asked guys to get up front and be the aggressors. With the weather forecast looking warm, I wanted them in the race and to have to figure out a way to be tough enough to gut it out. I knew it would be really tough. Ho they responded to that challenge is one of the most inspiring races I've ever seen. We lost some positions from 1.5 to 2 but we rallied back in the end. It was really impressive. That race will be much easier to finish in seven weeks. Tom Brennan took the group out first, then the Torps took over, followed closely by Maximus, Skucas, Lukas and Gleisner. Gregory was disconnected at this point and had to work hard over the next 800 to close the gap on our pack. This was the second race in a row in which Gregory was forced to work back up front. We blasted through the mile and into the North Loop we would see if we truly believed in our abilities or if we were running scared. That question was answered quickly. Our guys continued to lay down the hammer. I wondered how we would finish with such a blazing opening. What I found out is that our guys are the toughest guys in the state. Period. How exciting is this mentality? Get after it, push the pace on one of the best runners in the country and then tough it out. Phenomenal. Like I said, the race will be finished in seven weeks.

Our F/S guys had a hard time getting involved in this race. We were out of it early. Still, we had a number of positives. Dylan Jacobs continues to run like a champ. He went with some stud runners, ripping off a 800 and mile PR. Dylan broke 5:00 for the first time in the first mile— think about how far he has come in a few months! He was gassing in the North Loop with such a fast opening but he is tough as nails. Our other freshmen in the race were super tough— Sieczkowski, Duffy, Gonsch, Wagner and Scott ran solid races in their first experience in a race of that magnitude. I think they can come back here a year from now and tear the place up. Robbie Sieczkowski clearly went for it in the North Loop. He made a huge move right when we wanted him to. Papan, Nolan and Cachares dropped a decent amount of time from a year ago in slower conditions. We need to get Szymanski back on track. We are counting on him being a competitive leader for us and we are suffering without him up front right now. I love the work ethic of these guys, I love their attitudes. Let's take it to another level.

Our open guys showed the strength of our commitment. I loved how many of our guys in this race really laid it on the line. We had some seniors in this one who have put everything into this team and this sport. Additionally, we had some juniors and younger guys who were looking for new versions of their personal bests. Brady Walter had an excuse not to run well after a week of different training, but he went for the sub 16:00. I am counting on Brady's toughness this season. I know he still has some great racing to come. B-W continues to go for it. I love this mentality. I hope he continues to risk big. Anthony Lifonti also continues to push the limits and he keep trying to make something special happen. He really hammered the opening mile and was looking to make a big impact. I am still counting on him as well. I love that he continues to go for broke. It's great to see Miles Draskovic's improvement in black and white— 1:30 in one year.

Varsity: we need to examine the opening paces and determine your game plan moving forward. We also need to review the feedback process we had with watches, splits, places and overall communication. Our goals of getting a 14:50 average is going to take some more work. Our opening was really quick and we fell off. Thankfully we were tough enough to finish. We'll need to be better at getting a favorable position without throwing so much into it and still being able to move on phase 3. Once again, our training is ready for some of that kind of preparation. You'll need to do the hard part the work!

F/S: We obviously have a lot of work to do. The good news is that we are capable of being as great as we want to be. Take a look at some of the improvements below. If you are willing to put in the work you can make those improvements happen for yourself. We'll also need to examine our thinking process in a big, competitive environment. We were intimidated? Did you determine your mindset or let others dictate it? We had some great things happen in this race, but we can be way better!

A race expresses who you are. It expresses your character, your hunger, your toughness. It is a miniaturized version of life. You can plan, you can be prepared, but ultimately you don't know how it's going to turn out. Like life, if you are focused on the finish line, you will have missed the significance of the each moment of the race. You have hopes, you have twists, turns, thrilling moments and bumps and setbacks. How you respond to those moments ultimately define your true character. So many people let life happen to them. So many people let the race happen to them. So many people have deep doubts and uncertainties about themselves. So many people are afraid and run safe races. My hope is that you find your ability to respond to the unexpected by expressing your true character. My hope is that you risk and believe that you aren't an "also ran," but a game changer. My hope is that you find in both life and racing, that there is beauty in embracing the unknown in uncertainty. Of course, it would be easier not to try, not to care, not to give more of yourself because then you would guarantee that you wouldn't fail and that you wouldn't be disappointed. But it is in the moments of the unknown that we find meaning. The most comfortable life is not the most meaningful. The most comfortable races are not the ones we find enriching meaning. So embrace the unknown. Embrace risk. Embrace challenge. And knowing you guys, if you act like yourselves in those moments I guarantee you will succeed.

TIDBITS: »THANK YOU for the picnic!

WHAT'S NEXT: Big week of training. Next week we have a big week with our F/S hitting the Andrew F/S Invitational. Next Monday should be the conference meet for junior high school. We will be sending our team out there to "talk" with the junior high runners— wear CSHS warm-ups NEXT Monday!

SANDBURG CROSS COUNTRY

NEWS AND NOTES

RUNNERS OF THE WEEK: Brandon Lukas, Tom Brennan, Lou Cavalier, Alejandro Claure, IPads

St Charles North Inv/Peoria Inv

Sat. Oct 4, 2014

41 degrees, wind, rain/sleet

“You need to dance with everything in your heart and soul.”— Alejandro Claure

COACH'S COMMENTS:

We split up on Saturday so that we could get everyone some great opportunities to compete. We had seven guys travel down to Peoria to work on their race strategy and to come away with some real confidence on that course. We went to St. Charles to compete in a true cross country race with a strong varsity group running in a true varsity race, our F/S to race hard together and ready themselves for SWSC, and a group of guys in the open race who also needed a final invitational before Conference. We were looking for tough racing, risk taking, problem solving and a true sense of gratitude for the opportunity to race. For the most part, we accomplished our goals for the day.

First of all, the feedback I've gotten is that our guys were awesome at St. Charles and they took the challenges of the day as a reason to be excited. This is the character of the team: we seek out challenges, not run away from them. Challenges thrill us. You know what thrills me? IPads! Yes, I generally hate technology. I've been known to go on rants for hours on this sentiment. However, we got five ipads this season so that we can document the greatest season in the history of the school, to be able to share that with others, and so you all can examine your own races and learn from them. This week the ipads came through with a big performance. I was able to see all the races from St. Charles, hear post-race interviews and have a true idea of what happened. The coaches in St. Charles were able to see what happened in Peoria. Awesome.

The F/S seemed to get out kind of slow and get caught up. We need to be more aggressive and take hold of the race. This requires confidence. Dylan Jacobs continues to impress and runs with the confidence of a champion. Alex Szymanski had a stronger race than he did in Peoria. We still need him up front. Danny P had a solid race. He has so much potential in this sport. He's going to continue to get stronger. Matt Bovard clearly had a strong race as well. He's been working hard in practice and he's starting to see some results. Following Dylan, we have a strong freshmen group. I am excited for how they are going to represent the team in SWSC and for their future. I am hoping they commit to serious training in the off season that leads to our team success. I want to make sure they know something: our current juniors and seniors—the same group of guys—lost the SWSC two year ago. They got beat bad by L-Way Central. Two years later we are the best team in the state. They went from losing conference to the top of the state. So I hope the F/S group doesn't look to the varsity and say, “we're not as good as them.” You can be. The juniors and seniors decided to work their butts off year round. And we've had a number of success stories of guys who have made huge improvements as a result of it.

Our varsity also got a little trapped. Once again, be aggressive and stick your nose in it. It appeared from the video that David Gleisner got out in the top ten and was tracking the front runners, ready to make a move before he took a fall(which is against the rules, by the way). He immediately got up and problem solved, kept his poise and finished strong. His time would have surely been a PR at Detweiller, so it's exciting to see him race well even with a fall. That is key. Maybe it's not a fall, but something challenges you in every race—how you feel, the competition's strategy, the weather, or anything. The key is to stay in problem solving mode. Stay focused on the task at hand—the reason you are out there, not on excuses. Gleisner clearly represents the No Excuse Pillar very well. Dan Laskero also had a strong day. He was out slow, but worked his way through the field and grinded out his best race of the season. He also would have PRd at Detweiller and took a strong step forward. I liked what he said after the race that he is taking steps every week and plans on being even stronger at SWSC and Regionals. He has the right focus. Paul Siczkowski was also so impressive. He had some challenging races on his road to recovery, but he raced hard and had good results without feel at his best. Now he's starting to get sharp at the right time. Coach Jonaitis said that Lou Cavalier and Kyle Lahucik looked like they wanted to prove something. I said it a couple weeks ago that Big Lou is looking stronger every week and this week was his best yet! Big effort from Big Lou and a Big PR to show for it. How he managed to PR on that course in those conditions is mind blowing. In speaking of that, Connor Carper dropped :30! So impressive. We showed the depth and strength of the team at St. Charles with a solid 5th place in the varsity, 4th in the open and 6th in the F/S race even with seven guys in Peoria.

As for Peoria, we had another great team race out there. We took on a little bit different strategy so that we would have things locked down for state. We also had totally different conditions, so I feel like we've covered everything and know exactly how to handle state. We backed off the opening and the guys had more in the tank for the second half of the course. That's an important lesson: exercising a little control in the opening we have more to tap into. At the same time, we know we need to secure a favorable position. We have that balance established and will be aggressive front runners who don't throw away the race. Of course, in this race, we didn't have to burn as much in order to get a favorable position. Our guys worked with each other and fueled each other's race energy throughout the entire 3 miles. It was a huge advantage for us. This is called synergy—getting energy and providing energy at the same time. We found our rhythm and by the mile mark were rolling seven strong. Max pushed us to the North Loop when Tommy Brennan gave us the front running in the middle of the race that we've been looking for from him. He went hard until he caught the shadow of Jesse Reiser. The best part was that the rest of our guys responded and went with him. This is why running together can be so effective. We hold each other accountable and push each other. We are running with each other in the right way—by pushing each other, not by holding each other back. After Brennan put a charge in the pack Sean Torpy took over and I watched as our whole pack began to run down Reiser up the stretch and at the top of the course. Sean just needs to close out better—he was there for a 14:45 with 800 to go and needs to find that last gear. Also—he needs to lean at the finish! Guys—don't forget, it's a video review and your torso is your finish. You'll have guys around you at these chip-timed meets, so make sure you 1. Burn all the way through the finish line 2. Lean 3. Don't cut anyone off or alter your natural running form (avoid disqualification). Brennan closed like a freight train and found his way onto the record board in the Eagle Gym for an all-time performance. He had a couple of disappointing races to start but he remained positive and determined, like he always is, and when you do things right and think the right way, before too long something great will happen. Believe it. Chris Torpy was certain that he would run well and break 15:00. He had that look of knowing in his eyes. He hit the 2-mile mark with the same split from PND and he found a way to hurt a little more and closed out a full :7 faster than PND. Max Lehnhardt continues to be one of the most reliable, hungry performers of this season. He has made a huge jump and is not afraid to front run. He dropped :7 from PND and hit 15:00. It's a great reminder that the small difference between hitting your goal and missing by a fraction is that extra fraction of effort. He is one of our keys to that front group and has done everything right. I am so confident in his mentality. Brandon Lukas had one of the races of the day. I love BLukas! He has the best heart and when the gun goes off he simply races his butt off. He's so tough. He made a huge drop from 15:23 to 15:10 in just two weeks. He is always aggressive and always tough. He is perfect for our front group. The big thing I saw was how we worked together and how we always respond to being pushed by each other. Someone takes off and the group answers. We have leaders and we rely on each other's leadership.

As you examine the all time greatest composite times in school history, please be sure to note that with the exception of this year's team we've always run faster at state. And of course, this year's team hasn't run state. In 2007 we had a rare team that was five deep with our sixth runner a full :45 slower than our 5th. One of our top 5 got injured and that debilitated our chances. Even last year's team, who ran on a slow day at state, ran significantly faster at state than PCI or PND. Of course, this improvement will not simply be handed to you. And state might be run in a foot of snow or 50 mile an hour winds, so when we go there we go there to race and beat people, not for a great time. However, the point is, we have a lot of work to do and we need to keep focusing on improvement, and you should feel confident that if you do things the right way you will be better in November than you are right now. The same is true for our crew that will end their season at SWSC. We've always had our best race at SWSC. Regardless, there are two school records we haven't yet broken. The first is the lowest point total at state, which is 189 (2006), then 225 (2013, and 248 (1981). The second is the best finish in school history.

I'm going to say it a million times: you have to believe it to see it. Have you ever heard the phrase, "I'll believe it when I see it"? What a loser mentality. If there's one thing I can get across to you as you enter championship season it is that you need to believe it first before you will ever see it. Look at Max. He clearly believes it. He was probably around 14-15th on the depth chart last track season. He never broke 10:00. He got mono over the summer. But now he is running with the best in the state because he sees himself as one of the best in the state. He runs 9:54 through two miles and finishes at 15:00, obviously a pace that is 10:00 pace for three miles on grass with inclines. Have you ever heard the phrase, "nothing good ever happens to me?" There is another loser mentality. But you know what? They are right. Nothing good ever happens to anyone. If you want something good to "happen" in your life you need to make it happen. It never happens to you. So... what do you believe? What will you make happen? If you believe in something strongly enough it will happen in your life. That's something I believe.

TIDBITS: >>Warm clothes required for practice >>Wash your hands, get enough sleep. >>We will be deciding a limited post season roster and will invite people to continue running by the end of the day at conference. >> It's at this point in the season I'd like you to do a "race eval" on our website of the season to date—how are we doing in our standards

WHAT'S NEXT: A great week of training and the initial phases of mental preparation for SWSC. Coach Jonaitis tears up the Chicago Marathon!

High 40's/50, slight wind, overcast, wet

COACH'S COMMENTS:

We had a goal heading into the SWSC meet to have a spirit of gratitude and enthusiasm and to exude the aura of champions. We certainly had that feeling on Saturday. While everything didn't go perfectly well, we had a passion and purpose out there.

Our F/S guys got the day under way with some serious aggression. The gun went off and the boys took to the front immediately. We were 1-2-3 and had our next four right in there. I loved their aggression and their risk taking. I apologize for not preparing this group for the race they would have to run to win. That is 100% my fault. The guys threw a lot into the opening and paid for it late. We were in a battle and in the end Lockport got us by a mere three passes for 6 points. The win was there for the taking, but we didn't get it done. We must tip our cap to Lockport. Dylan Jacobs rolled the whole way and looked like a world beater. He is the best freshman runner I've ever had. Note the freshman times of these guys: S Torpy—16:11, Skucas—16:09, Brennan—16:36, Gleisner—17:34, Lehnhardt—16:32 and the list goes on. Dylan ran solo to a sub 16:00 in pretty slow conditions. Awesome stuff. I can't wait to see him in the IHSA Regional this Saturday. Dylan has all the characteristics needed to be a champion. He loves to compete, he works incredibly hard, he has poise and confidence and he knows how to hurt. Danny Papan had a little more control in his opening than some of our other guys and it paid off in the second half of the race. He had a strong performance and battled the whole way. I am super excited about our next three freshmen Nick Gonsch, Robbie Sieczkowski, and Brendan Duffy. These three laid it on the line. Gonsch managed to fight back in the final 800 and get a few more spots. These three guys have a huge future in this sport. Guys—just remember the example we see from the current juniors and seniors who lost the SWSC two years ago. The key is that those guys committed fully to year round preparation. They were out in Polar Bear, indoor track, track and summer camp. And most importantly, they did it with passion and relentless work ethic. This has led to where they are at now.

Our varsity took control of the race, as expected. I expected us to be fatigued heading into this one, and we clearly were. We still need to run better regardless of how we feel. There is no way that Joliet guy should beat any of our guys. He's a really good runner, but we should simply out tough that guy and beat him with our advantage of having six other teammates around to help steamroll this guy. Our pack should overwhelm him. Tommy Brennan made it happen—he made the decision to be tough enough to lay it down mid race and then find the toughness to finish what he started. In the process he became a SWSC Champion. He joins a rare group of guys who have contributed to 9 of the last 10 SWSC individual titles: Adamowski, Dahleen, Verzbicas, and McMahon. Behind him we had a group of guys who weren't feeling their best but who battled and hung in there the whole way. I'm guessing, once again, our pack helped us out—helping guys to stick out the tough spots. This is the epitome of who we are—we become infinitely stronger together and when things get difficult we rely on each other to keep pushing us. This group has been the greatest, toughest, most effective group of racers I've ever seen. At one point Brandon Lukas took over and starting hammering the pace to close the small gap to Brennan down. At other points other guys put it on the line. Max and CTorps hammered the whole race together. I am 100% confident in this group's toughness and will bet on them any day of the week. Feeling sharp will come.

Our open race showed our full commitment to being great. Dan Laskero has been coming on strong. He's better every week and I expect that to continue. His performance, when taking out Sandburg runners, would have resulted in a 2nd place finish in the varsity race. He will be looking to make another step forward in the IHSA Regional next week. David Gleisner also had a performance worthy of 2nd place in the varsity. I have no doubt he has what it takes to be a state runner for us. Paul Sieczkowski has been so impressive. Everything he does, he does it the right way. He was one of a few guys who sent me a team roster with word for each guy. He also has been improving every single week and managed to close out his race with so much guts. Miles Draskovic had a huge race as well. I'm so impressed with his progression this season. What an improvement! Likewise Connor Carper had yet another PR and managed to drop 2 minutes from last year! Ben Cachares was awesome—his performance would have helped us a lot in the sophomore race. I was also super impressed with Ryan Wagner and Michael Scott, who clearly have a great future in this sport. I love their attitude. Scott unleashed a vicious kick that clearly displayed his determination. How about Brad Ryan who pushed through some physical setbacks and managed to drop three and a half minutes from last year! And JJ Mitra who ran 29+ at the Pre-SWSC on a longer course, and ran 21:51 on Saturday! And Haadi Sherifeh who went from 34 minutes to 22:54! Amazing improvement. Work and you will improve.

Lastly, we all ran with a clear conviction and represented Alejandro Claire with the right spirit and mentality. As I said on Friday, I've never been around a group of guys who are so eager to help others and so grateful for the opportunities they have. I think this is much better than any championship.

NEWS AND NOTES

RUNNERS OF THE WEEK: All Six Regional Runners

IHSA Regional @Midlothian Meadows

Saturday, Oct. 25, 2014

68 degrees, sunny, little wind

COACH'S COMMENTS:

First of all, the best thing about Saturday was the overwhelming support that we had for Sandburg. We had parents, alumni, our team, swimmers, and more. It was fantastic! That is what is going to make us unbeatable. We want that to get even louder and more intimidating as we go on! We also had some great competing on Saturday. We want that to also get more full of fire and excitement as we go on. Our group of six went right to the front line, taking hold from the beginning. We exited the woods 1k in and had the entire front group. I loved that belief and aggression. It might have made the second half of the race hot and difficult, but it was the kind of racing we are all about. Greg Burzinski had his best race of the season. He went for the win and when the Shepard kid caught him Greg fought back multiple times. With 400 to go Greg threw down a nearly all out sprint to break him, then fought back again in the final stretch. Greg might have got him with another 50 meters of space. 15:16 would have taken 14th in Sectionals two years ago. Of course, this year's sectional will be much more packed in, so we'll have to be ready to scrap. His time puts him on sub 15:00 schedule, which is the goal right now. Now we need Greg to dig down with that kind of effort in a packed race as a member of a group and not necessarily the front runner. The goal for next week at Sectionals is for Greg to deal with the crowd, run for the team win by tangling with the other 15-flaters. Great race for Greg, now let's drop time from Regionals on the same course. Behind Greg, we had Dan Laskero laying it on the line, trailing Greg by only a second or two at the mid way point. His fight back to form has been inspiring. He is flat out tough. I'm super confident in Dan, as well as our next guys, to make any race outcome happen for us. Dylan Jacobs. Have we said enough about DJ? What a stud. All-Regional as a freshman! He can be an all-time great! I admire his racing and willpower so much. David Gleisner is one of our most competitive runners on the team. I love his approach and am super confident in him as well. He was hanging on to the front pack and clearly hurting but he didn't budge. Truly unbreakable. Brady Walter and Matt Benz-Weeden have been so solid in their desire. When I think about where they started—as well as our other seniors—I am blown away. Think of this, as freshmen their Color Wars times were: Burzinski—20:11, Brower—22:11, Walter—23:33, Benz-Weeden—23:10. This is what we are all about. This is Sandburg Cross Country. Hard work. Passion. Total Commitment. This leads to our greatness. People around the state provide themselves with excuses because they can't grasp our depth. How can we have so many guys so fast? They generally attribute it to the size of our school. Of course, our cross country team—at 59 people—is not one of the largest. Not even close. What we do is we have the guys who commit to the team to be exactly what B-W and Walter exemplify. I couldn't be prouder of those two guys. Wearing the throwback unis, our six guys represented the CSHS tradition.

This course runs a little slower than Detweiller. It appears there is a 10-20 drop for Detweiller. Last year was not a clear representation of the conversion because of the windy and warm state meet and only the regional to draw from at Midlo. Two years ago we had Regionals and Sectionals at Midlo. Will Becker went with the following progression at Regionals, Sectionals, with the Regional and Sectional being held at Midlo Meadows: 16:00—15:55—15:36. Chris Hogan went from 15:23 to 15:05 sectionals to state. The conversion was fairly consistent with a few exceptions—perhaps for guys who put everything into the Sectional and didn't perform as well at state. At our Sectional two years ago at Midlo our 5th was 15:51. Obviously this year we are way deeper. I am confident that a sub 15:15 will equate to a sub 15:00 at state, conditions being relative.

Remember our goal for state: to average a 14:50. We averaged 14:58 last time at Detweiller. A 15:05 average at Sectionals should put us right on schedule for that 14:50 average. Sub 15:00 at Midlo is rare air.

The big thing moving forward is for us to take that joy and that love of effort and racing with us that we saw on Saturday. As I checked in with guys before the race, I saw nothing but smiles and excitement. Guys were so enthusiastic to be racing. They were filled with a sense of gratitude—the privilege of pressure. We are on a mission.

CROWD SUPPORT: Need to meet with Brower and Lahucik. We want a well coordinated attack.

IPADS: Need to meet with Markey. I want to show you what we need for state and get guys prepared for execution.

TIDBITS: >> Buca Di Beppo on Friday, 6:00. $15/person. >>ALL 12 GUYS NEED TO BE READY TO RACE NEXT SATURDAY. THAT MEANS LITTLE THINGS (BRING UNIFORM/SPIKES) AND BIG THINGS (MENTALLY READY TO RIP AND STEP IN).

WHAT'S NEXT: IHSA Sectional at Midlothian Meadows at 12:00.

38 degrees, sporadic wind/mostly calm, mostly sunny

COACH'S COMMENTS:

We've never run our best race at Sectionals. Ever. To be honest, we typically run below average because we are training for state and there are a lot of people who go all in at Sectionals. And this year we knew heading into the sectional that we'd be pushed more than we've been the whole season. What I was hoping to see was a response to this challenge. I surely expected us to be ready for the test and to use the day as preparation for next Saturday. We got out after it with some blazing opening 800 splits even with a crunch at the turn that caused us to come to a virtual stop. The best thing I saw in the opening 800 was BLukas responding to an unexpected hurdle. He got detached early because of having to jump over a guy; I saw him at 400 two seconds behind the group already and he simply stayed calm, problem solved and avoided an overreaction and an overcompensation. He got himself back into the pack efficiently and then regrouped and made himself ready for another huge move later in the race. The other great thing I saw was how our main pack didn't blindly follow an overly aggressive opening from Greg and C Torps. I loved Greg and C Torp's aggression, but I loved even more the poised, confident running of our main pack—this is key. We can't blindly follow even our own guys. If someone is making a critical mistake, we can't all follow him into that mistake. Greg and C Torps set the tone and, as it was, we obtained a favorable position and made the entire sectional play defense for the rest of the race. Let's find the balance next Saturday and also be adaptable. Soon after 800 our group found each other and found rhythm up front. We chased Clevenger and didn't yield to anyone. This is what we need to do next week, only add Reiser, Perriera, Dale and perhaps Gordon and Keegan Smith (and anyone who is willing to risk going with them). That's maybe five-seven guys I expect up front then our group combating with the rest. Let's beat everyone else. If we can get our group into the 8-25 range with no gaps again, that would be quite tough to beat.

Entering the woods, our guys were full throttle. I was ecstatic to see our 7 in the top 10 and having the look of hunger. At some point, each guy made a huge impact on the group. If one guy made a move, the others responded. Early, it was Burzinski and C Torps taking charge, then Brennan and S Torps were rolling. At one point BLukas put in a move in phase three—a big boost to our group. Skucas and Maximus added an unmatched strength to our group. At some point between the 2 and 2.5, we got caught by a couple of guys (this could be a few more next week) and we hung in there and then battled back in the final 400, which was huge. Brennan, S Torpy and C Torpy fought back and caught the DGS kid, a drop of three points and an add on of three to their score. At state, a pass of key guys like this is a simple 6 point turnaround every time—which can be the difference. BLukas fought back and caught TWO NV guys, a big turnaround of four points. When you see key guys like that—and you truly want to win—then you have to dig down and get those guys. With the pack so tight I actually missed Max with 400 to go. Max was disappointed in his race—he didn't have his best race—however, he hung in there and stayed tough for us. He could have checked out. He passed a guy in the final 50 meters which displays his fight. He could have said, "I don't need to pick up that guy, I'm not scoring," but that is not in his character. And guess what? Max was in front of everyone's 4-5 runners—that's two points/team tacked on. But more importantly, the character shown from all 7 is exactly what we are looking for. Only one option next week.

Guys—this kind of character that we saw in Max not quitting and Laskero, B-W, Brower and Markey in the time trial, in each guy adding to the fire, and in each guy digging down in the final 400—is what we need to achieve our goals next weekend. If we have the same fearlessness, toughness, focus and relentless quality, we will achieve our goals. No gaps. Unbreakable group. Focus and poise. Clearly we were ready to fight. NV, LT and HC were not. They will be this week—I guarantee it. They return key guys and they aren't going to simply give up. I told you leading up to this who was going to run well and who wasn't. I can see it a mile away. I also said that I am 100% positive that you are the best team in the state. 100% positive. NV, HC, LT—they were very afraid of us. Frightened to death. They won't be this week. They have nothing to lose. As I said last week, winning the sectional does not help you win the state meet. We will need to be ready for a bigger effort...as long as we be ourselves and give our absolute best effort, and have that same sense of mission, we will win. But we need to do what we've always done—focus on our process and our standards. Winning is not the focus—it will happen as a byproduct of our focus. Here is our focus: We'll need Greg to keep the momentum rolling, we'll need Max to re-join C Torps, we'll need everyone to be on the same page and to be willing to truly MLT, to truly be Irrompible. Avoid looking around, avoid the noise. It's all just noise. We know what we need to do, we know what we are capable of doing, so let's do it. Instead of looking around let's do this instead: let's look at ourselves. Why have we been successful? We've had a team culture of champions. We've had the best support imaginable. We've run for a greater purpose—do you feel the strength of that purpose? We've had NO EXCUSES. We've had psychotic dedication. Blue collar. I was looking for a 15:05 average, which I felt would put us on schedule to run a 14:50 average next week. Our 7-man average was 14:58. I was looking for that spirit of Alejandro—just pebbles in our shoes are what obstacles look like compared to our desire and gratitude. I felt it. Our goal heading back to Detweiller for the fourth time will be a 14:50 average for 7 guys, 7 guys in the top 50, 7 guys sub 15:00. Our goal is to have that Unbreakable spirit from every runner, every parent and family member, every alumni, every friend, every fan and every coach. Finally, I want to say how proud I am of this group. What an amazing group of people! How lucky am I!?! Remember: the worst thing that can happen to this season is that it ends. I am going to make sure I enjoy this week with you guys. I feel so lucky. Thank you for all that you are.

TIDBITS: >>Be sure you get enough rest; extra rest on Friday >>Don't over eat >>wash hands >>Buca on Friday>>we'll be using the mini-bus this week every day—Daylight Savings is working against us!

NEWS AND NOTES

IHSA State Meet

Saturday, Nov 8, 2014

45 degrees, sunny, some wind

COACH'S COMMENTS:

Well, there are one or two things we can look at with Saturday and be disappointed about. There are also a million things we can look at and be very proud of. As Alejandro told us Friday night, "there are so many things to look at and be grateful for—focus on what you have, not what you don't have." We have so much to be proud of that it would be only a loser mentality to feel bad for ourselves. We aren't victims. We had the greatest crowd support I've ever seen at a Sandburg event. Several hundred people came out in blue and screamed their heads off. The guys on the team who weren't running were more enthusiastic than anyone at the course. Alumni, family and friends were in huge numbers. It was clear that there are a lot of people who love you guys. We brought home the first ever state trophy in the history of the program. I heard from so many alums who said how much it meant to them to see that thing finally brought home to Sandburg High School. We ran for a greater purpose than just ourselves.

As for the race, first of all, we must congratulate Hinsdale Central. They earned that state title. They dug down deep. They had some key injuries that they had to deal with, they struggled at the sectional meet and they found a way to believe enough to get it done. We must tip our cap to them. We've talked about a few things. The most obvious areas where we didn't execute were the opening and closing 800s. Our opening 800 cost us a ton of efficient energy and movement. We were buried and had to rally big. I loved that we didn't throw in the towel after a jarring opening to the race. We tried to problem solve and go to work. At the 800 I had a sick feeling in my stomach. I didn't think we could win a race with that opening. I was hoping we could somehow get it together enough to pull it off, even if it was an ugly win. Somehow Max was on one side of the crowd and the rest of our guys on the other. We found each other and started to work. At 800 we were behind HC's entire top 7 and were well back in the field. I went to the North Loop and upon the entry our guys had worked their way back. Greg and Tommy were positioned somewhere around 20th and we had a pack within :10. Max fell down, although I didn't see it, I know it had to cost him a ton of time and energy. At the mile HC was winning with around 90 points (Feldman's chip didn't register and even without him they were winning with 112 and he was about 30 places ahead of their 6th at that point). By the 1.5 we were in the lead 100-124. Our final score was 138, so that means we had a net loss of 38 points over the second half of the race. I am guessing that our energy that we spent in climbing back into the race eventually caught up to us, but I'm still not sure why we didn't close it out. I know at the 2.5 we were right in it and in the lead by a few points. HC had their 4-5 rally big and caught us. So we have the start to look at, Max falling down, and the lack of a big close. Those are the areas that hurt us. Of course, no excuses means no excuses so when I evaluate the race I am left with the conclusion that while we didn't execute the opening like we were supposed to, we still should have been able to finish the job--the difference between first and second can be blamed on coaching. I apologize for not having you ready. You should have felt stronger. You should have been more ready for the start. You deserve so much better. You have done everything I've asked of you, you've done it better than anyone could dream, and I didn't get the job done. All I can do is make sure it doesn't happen again. You can be certain that that will be the case. As it was, our team composite was about the same as our best Detweiller performance at PCI. We had to run through a wall of people to run that time, which was markedly different from PCI, but it still doesn't sit well with me that our performance at state was not better than PCI and that is my fault. It appears we were about :10 off. Our senior who ran is a guy I am really proud of. Greg Burzinski had a great race despite the opening. He really led us the entire 3-miles. He raced like I hope all seniors will race: with a determined heart, with bold and courageous spirit, and with relentlessness that he wouldn't be denied. He was in 19th with 800 to go and ran out of gas but raced with courage to a PR. His ability to fight off the pressure of not running well in the first few races and go into the regional and race and earn his spot, then he went ahead and led our team in the two most important races of the IHSA season. He raced with real heart out there. He led this team to its first ever state trophy. Tommy Brennan battled out there and found a way to catch Greg in the final straightaway. He's been a rock for us. The Torpys have been a key to our success. C Torpy battled his way to a near PR and Sean is going to be a monster next season with a chip on his shoulder. I was really proud of Skucas and his effort, which earned him a PR. Max stayed true to the no excuses pillar and bounced right back up after he fell. BLukas fell off the pack early but stayed focused and in it. We had an :11 split off Brennan and we managed our goal of scorers coming in the top 45. Five guys in the top 45 is one key to a state title. Guys—what an amazing thrill to see you hoist the trophy! Wow.

While we nailed the five at 45th or better, next year we are going to need some sub 14:30 runners. It's not going to be easy to finish what we started. Hinsdale's top 2 are going nowhere. York returns 6 guys, with five already at 15:20 or better and an ace upfront. They are going to be going all in to return the championship to York. NV returns five of their top seven and they have 250 more. What we can do is focus on our process and make sure we get everything we can out of ourselves over this next year. As for now, we need to re-focus and get ready to qualify for NXN. We have an amazing opportunity ahead! You've worked incredibly hard for years, now you have the opportunity to take us to Nationals for the first time. That would be another thrill of a lifetime for us! Let's see how truly unbreakable we are! We are heading into that thing ready to rip people apart.

This team will forever be known as the team that "broke through." We've heard tales of guys giving it everything they had to fall short of a trophy. That storyline is now over. It's easy to be disappointed in not winning. But looking back on this, this will be a huge moment for us. That trophy is the best finish ever. This is the indisputable best team in Sandburg history. We put in so much to accomplish that 2nd place trophy. It's a special moment. Finally getting up on the award's stand was special for me. Thank you for giving that to me. You also earned a gift to Alejandro. What a special moment for him to walk up on that stage. When you look at that trophy you will remember the 2014 season, which has been an incredible one. We found ways to share our gifts with others. We found ways to support one another and run for great purposes. We created an all-time bond through this journey. Our seniors are irreplaceable. Wow. They have so much passion and energy—I don't know what we'll do without that passion next year. It's the heart and soul of this team. Thank you for your incredible efforts, for your caring and decency, for your character. You are some of the most inspiring people I know.

But our IHSA season didn't end on the awards stand. The last thing we did this season was show up at the front door of a teammate who needed support and who has inspired us this season. Our last moment was showing up and giving what we had to offer. There is nothing better than that—that is the true definition of Unbreakable. Thank you for giving me a joy of a lifetime. I love you guys—you make me so proud in so many ways.

TIDBITS: >>Turn in gear. >>Awards Nights: Monday, Nov. 24th, 6:30 PAC

WHAT'S NEXT: Awards Night. Craft Fair. Sunday, Nov 23rd at 3:45 in the Grill Area. Polar Bear! A lot of work! We have a lot of work to do if we want to talk about finishing what we started. Who is going to step up?
